Play button (spin button on desktop layout, pink circle button on mobile devices) starts a game with the selected total bet. On each play, the reels spin and stop in a random position.

Joker's Kingdom base bet is of 25 minor currency units of the bet currency. The player can choose higher bets through the user interface

After the reels stop, the slot evaluates the possible line prizes, that are obtained by combinations of 3 similar symbols, starting from the most left reel and along continuous reels from left to right. The spatial locations of these combinations are defined by the slot paylines (figure 2). The prize depends on the symbol type and the amount of symbols inside the payline (figures 3 and 4).

In addition, Wild symbol (figure 4), can also be a substitute of any symbol in order to achieve a line prize.

After each spin, all symbols that form part of a prize are highlighted. The monetary prize is also shown (figure 5).
